

What's banned where you live?

Look below to find out what sources of plastics are reduced in your area. While some municipalities have passed ordinances prohibiting thick plastic bags, there are others in South Carolina that still need to close the loophole.

Key

*Thick plastic bags

Straws

Balloons

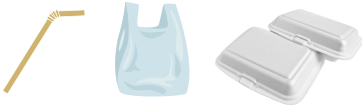

Styrofoam

Single-use plastic bags

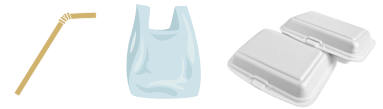

CHARLESTON AREA

City of Charleston

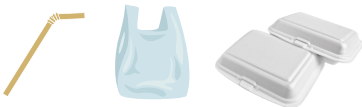

Closed the thick plastic bag loophole in 2023

Charleston County

Mount Pleasant

Closed the thick plastic bag loophole in 2024

Folly Beach

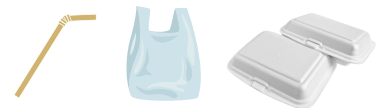

Town of James Island

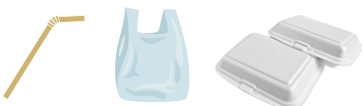

Closed the thick plastic bag loophole in 2024

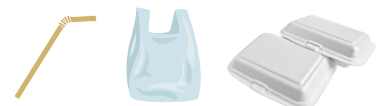

Sullivan's Island

Seabrook Island

Isle of Palms

Kiawah Island

Edisto Island

